Rivers East Workforce Development Board and Bertie Hive House to Host Bertie Career Summit for Individuals in Bertie, Hertford, and Martin Counties

Washington, N.C. – On Saturday, April 29, the Rivers East Workforce Development Board in partnership with the Bertie Hive House will host the Bertie Career Summit, an all-day job readiness event. Registration will open at 9:00am on Saturday, April 29 at the Educational Vitality Center, located at 121 Main Street in Lewiston-Woodville. The event will wrap up at 3:30pm.

The purpose of this event is to provide information to young people and others who may be unemployed or under-employed about the various work readiness, support, training, and employment opportunities available in Bertie, Martin, and Hertford counties, specifically in the fields of Trades, Industry, and Healthcare.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet and gather information from community resource agencies that will be in attendance. There will be four informational sessions throughout the day: Adult & Youth: Program Overview & Recruitment Forum, Work Readiness Activities, Careers in Trades/Industry, and Careers in Healthcare. Additionally, participants will have the opportunity to interact with employers and receive participation gifts offered by the Hive House and local employers. Breakfast and lunch will be provided to attendees, as well as giveaways.

Individuals that are interested in attending this event should visit the following link to register: tinyurl.com/careersummit2023

Workforce Development Board Director Jennie Bowen states “I am thrilled for this collaboration and grateful for the partnership with Bertie Hive House and Vitality Center through Mrs. Vivian Saunders. I hope the citizens of Bertie, Hertford, and Martin counties will take advantage of this information-packed event to get connected to valuable local resources and careers.”

The board's office is located at 1502 N. Market St., Suite A in Washington. For more information, call (252) 974-1815.
